1992 index

Agricultural sector

Against farmers: A silent war; 347, 3-92, p. 11.

Benigna Mendiola: We have more serious problems; 347, 3-92, p. 25.

National Campesino Coordinator: Hoisting just one flag; 349, 5-92, p. 23.

Legality and financing for peace; 349, 5-92, p. 24. Donald Mendoza García, former major in the EPS and a leader of the Association of Retired Military Persons.

The government better listen; 349, 5-92, p. 25. César Antonio Chavarría ("comandante Dumas", ex contra leader).

Not a desktop reconciliation; 349, 5-92, p. 25. Luis Fley González ("comandante Johnson", ex contra leader).

Campesinos take to the streets; 351, 7-92, p. 7.

Cooperatives without financing; 352, 8-92, p. 6.

ATC demonstrates confiscation maneuvers; 352, 8-92, p. 6.

FSLN denounces killing of campesinos; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

Cooperative members harassed and killed; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

Invaders and invaded fight for recognition: Rural land conflicts; 352, 8-92, p. 23.

Atlantic Coast

For sale: Nicaraguan resources; 345, 1-92, p. 11.

Caribbean coast: divided by war...: United by autonomy; 348, 4-92, p. 17.

North Caribbean: Shaky peace; 348, 4-92, p. 19.

Just for the weekend; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

FSLN backs struggle for autonomy; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Insufficient aid from the EEC; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

New attempt at disarmament; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

New time limit for Chamorro government; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Chamorro visits the Caribbean coast: Presidential tour; 350, 6-92, p. 10.

Autonomy before the Supreme Court: Will the verdict be fair?; 350, 6-92, p. 11.

Guthrie's businesses proclaimed illegal; 351, 7-92, p. 7.

Caribbean autonomy: A law unable to be; 351, 7-92, p. 28.

Yatama protests and makes threats; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

Culture

Archeological plunder; 354, 10-92, p. 27.

Castigo Divino still sizzling; 355, 11/12-92, p. 35.

Documents

Goverment proposal to the FSLN; 349, 5-92, p. 10. Document presented to the FSLN by the government in mid-March.

Resolution on the economic situation; 349, 5-92, p. 11. Resolutions of the Sandinista Assembly.

Sao Paulo Forum: The Managua declaration; 352, 8-92, p. 16.

Declaration of Managua; 355, 11/12-92, p. 27. Document of the third Continental Encounter of Indigenous, Black and Grassroots Resistance.

Proposals of the peoples of America for the future; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8. Proposals from the Continental Indigenous, Black and Grassroots Movement.

Drug trafficking/Drugs

Drug trafficking on the rise; 350, 6-92, p. 13.

The enchantment of drugs; 350, 6-92, p. 23.

Ecology

For sale: Nicaraguan resources; 345, 1-92, p. 11.

Polluters shut down; 346, 2-92, p. 15. Closing down of Elpesa.

The trees are still standing; 348, 4-92, p. 24.

Parrot piracy; 348, 4-92, p. 25.

Campaign to save the last forest; 348, 4-92, p. 29

The forests in flames; 350, 6-92, p. 14.

A tale from Solentiname: Restoring the land; 350, 6-92, p. 19.

Back to the earth; 350, 6-92, p. 3. Nicaragua's participation in the "Earth Summit".

Contaminated workers sue; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

Post-ECO '92: What now?; 351, 7-92, p. 21.

Cocibolca: the "freshwater sea": In danger of drowning; 351, 7-92, p. 22.

President forms Si-A-Paz commission; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

Saving the reptiles; 353, 9-92, p. 25.

In San Rafael del Sur: Reforestation is not a hobby; 354, 10-92, p. 20.

Economy

Loans and donations: A straitjacket; 345, 1-92, p. 8.

Neo-liberalism in vitro; 345, 1-92, p. 20. Review of 1991.

Plantain wars; 345, 1-92, p. 34.

Centrist policy, rightist economy; 346, 2-92, p. 12.

World Bank recommends "softening" adjustment; 348, 4-92, p. 8.

Scandinavian countries support government; 348, 4-92, p. 8.

New economic group; 348, 4-92, p. 8.

Call to defend coffee; 348, 4-92, p. 8.

To the workers' pocketbooks: Measures don't mean much; 348, 4-92, p. 11.

Donors promise US$1.2 billion; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Insufficient aid from the EEC; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Workers' property in Nicaragua: New dilemmas every day; 349, 5-92, p. 19.

The workers of "El Caracol": Is it worth it?; 349, 5-92, p. 20.

Carlos Castro — Victoria t ewery: For us and for all; 349, 5-92, p. 22.

Cuba and Nicaragua renew trade relations; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

European Parliament increases aid; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

Privatization of state banks?: Yes, but no; 350, 6-92, p. 9.

United States withholds aid: What new order?; 351, 7-92, p. 4.

It's everybody's or nobody's; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

Nicaragua sells debt; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

El Caracol workers win battle; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

In exchange for what?; 353, 9-92, p. 6. Chamorro's statements about retention of US aid.

Nicaragua signs trade agreement; 353, 9-92, p. 6.

US aid disbursements: Aid that isn't; 353, 9-92, p. 10.

On the objectives of the aid: The United States' version; 353, 9-92, p. 13. Article by the director of AID in Nicaragua.

More reductions in the state; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

Government laments unpaid bills; 354, 10-92, p. 7.

Mexico-Central American free trade by 1996: The implications of the agreement; 354, 10-92, p. 13.

Liquidating the country; 354, 10-92, p. 26. Private banks denounced.

Transport subsidies at risk; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

Bitter news; 355, 11/12-92, p. 35.

Editorial

Pass one, fail three; 345, 1-92, p. 3. The economic "gains" of the government.

New year, old problems; 346, 2-92, p. 3. Political situation in the country.

Negotiate with consistency; 347, 3-92, p. 3. On the dialogues with the "recontras" and "recompas".

Nicaragua at the crossroads; 348, 4-92, p. 3.

The FSLN's initiative; 349, 5-92, p. 3.

Back to the earth; 350, 6-92, p. 3. Nicaragua's participation in the "Earth Summit".

Another July 19; 351, 7-92, p. 3.

Popular sectors: Standing up for themselves; 352, 8-92, p. 3.

The ties continue; 353, 9-92, p. 3. On solidaridity.

500 years of struggle; 354, 10-92, p. 3.

A change in administration; 355, 11/12-92, p. 3.

Education

If you can pay, you can study; 345, 1-92, p. 35.

Nicaraguan students in the former socialist bloc: A forgotten contingent; 346, 2-92, p. 18.

Students abroad: a long wait; 348, 4-92, p. 9.

Crisis in the universities; 348, 4-92, p. 9.

The university in the neighborhoods; 348, 4-92, p. 26.

Lottery redentoris; 349, 5-92, p. 32.

Ministry of Education under fire: A failed course; 351, 7-92, p. 19.

The universities on strike: Fighting for their share; 352, 8-92, p. 11.

National Assembly backs university demands: The lesson of the students; 353, 9-92, p. 9.

Government hears out private schools; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

Pressures on students increase; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

Essay

A political pentagram; 345, 1-92, p. 30. By Oscar-René Vargas.

When the North closes in on itself: Rethinking the planet; 346, 2-92, p. 44. By Sergio Ferrari.

Two years after the elections: Still lost in the storm; 347, 3-92, p. 34. By Aldo Díaz Lacayo.

Five hundred years/Indigenous people

Five centuries of plunder; 345, 1-92, p. 37.

Manifesto of the Spanish campaign: 500 years of aggression, 500 years of resistance; 346, 2-92, p. 33.

Territorial demarcation for Yanomamis; 346, 2-92, p. 36.

For a "clean" celebration; 348, 4-92, p. 29.

Indigenous groups mark the way; 350, 6-92, p. 29.

500 years of indigenous, black and popular resistance: A mosaic of interests; 351, 7-92, p. 30.

500 years of struggle; 354, 10-92, p. 3.

Subtiava Indians: We're the real owners; 354, 10-92, p. 25.

Indigenous, Black and Popular Resistance: A campaign for the future; 354, 10-92, p. 31.
500 years later...: The re-encounter; 355, 11/12-92, p. 12.
America's native peoples: Coordinating ideas; 355, 11/12-92, p. 15. Third Continental Encounter, indigenous section.
Blacks of the continent: The first steps; 355, 11/12-92, p. 17. Third Continental Encounter, Black section.
Indigenous, mestizo and Black women: Close talk; 355, 11/12-92, p. 19. Third Continental Encounter, women's section.
Grassroots sectors: Exploring new ways; 355, 11/12-92, p. 21. Third Continental Encounter, grassroots section.
First continental traditional medicine encounter: In the magical altar; 355, 11/12-92, p. 23.
500 years in Latin America; 355, 11/12-92, p. 26.
Declaration of Managua; 355, 11/12-92, p. 27. Document of the third Continental Encounter of Indigenous, Black and Grassroots Resistance.
Proposals of the peoples of America for the future; 355, 11/12-92, p. 28. Proposals from the Continental Indigenous, Black and Grassroots Movement.
Interview with Rigoberta Menchú, 1992 Nobel Peace Prize laureate: The conviction of hope; 355, 11/12-92, p. 31.
Kajianteya Octorina Zamora, of the indigenous Tewok Nechaiek Party of Argentina: A different story; 355, 11/12-92, p. 40.

Health

The choler of a minister; 345, 1-92, p. 35.
Infant mortality rising; 348, 4-92, p. 9.
Cholera waters; 348, 4-92, p. 23.
Hospitals paralyzed; 349, 5-92, p. 8.
No holiday from cholera; 349, 5-92, p. 33.
Fighting malnutrition creatively; 349, 5-92, p. 29.
Congratulations Mom?; 350, 6-92, p. 23.
Illnesses afflict campesino communities; 352, 8-92, p. 7.
Poisonous free trade; 352, 8-92, p. 28. Sale of toxic foods and medicines.
Hospitals receive face-lift; 353, 9-92, p. 25.
High demand for trips to Cuba; 354, 10-92, p. 7.
Health ministry running dry; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.
Measles spreads among children; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

In their own words

1992 budget: deepening the crisis; 345, 1-92, p. 33.
No agenda for struggle?; 346, 2-92, p. 27.
Sandinism's disjunctive; 347, 3-92, p. 33.

International

Argentina

Sick of lackadaisical unions; 347, 3-92, p. 42.
Kajianteya Octorina Zamora, of the indigenous Tewok Nechaiek Party of Argentina: A different story; 355, 11/12-92, p. 40.

Brazil

Territorial demarcation for Yanomamis; 346, 2-92, p. 36.
Innovative tactic stimulates informal economy; 349, 5-92, p. 38.

Central America

Drug-trafficking re-routed through region; 346, 2-92, p. 36.
What awaits the Latin American left?; 347, 3-92, p. 46. Coup d'etat in Haiti.
Armies against reduction; 349, 5-92, p. 38.
From a backyard to a toxic dump; 350, 6-92, p. 28.

Chile

Arms smuggling to Croatia; 348, 4-92, p. 30.

Colombia

Bleak times for coffee producers; 347, 3-92, p. 43.
Colombia: caught between the guerrilla struggle and drug trafficking: Stuck in war; 353, 9-92, p. 29.

Costa Rica

Costa Rica swindled: US company sells land; 346, 2-92, p. 47.
Costa Rica: Latent militarism; 349, 5-92, p. 37.
There's many a slip...; 351, 7-92, p. 39.
Eyes on the European banana market; 348, 4-92, p. 31.
Protests to expansion of banana plantations and environmental damages; 355, 11/12-92, p. 37.

Cuba

War on AIDS; 345, 1-92, p. 38.
Protestants renew ties with United States; 352, 8-92, p. 30.
Great Britain willing to trade; 354, 10-92, p. 33.
Chronicle of a blockade; 355, 11/12-92, p. 42.

Dominican Republic

For a "clean" celebration; 348, 4-92, p. 29.
Rights group denounces Haitian forced labor; 355, 11/12-92, p. 38.

Ecuador

Indigenous groups mark the way; 350, 6-92, p. 29.
Business rejoicing; popluar rejection; 352, 8-92, p. 30.

El Salvador

Armed with paintbrushes; 345, 1-92, p. 39.
Time for reconstruction; 345, 1-92, p. 40.
Peace agreement signed in El Salvador: History begins anew; 346, 2-92, p. 38.
Interview with Comandante Rogelio Martínez, of the FMLN: The war is over, but the struggle continues; 346, 2-92, p. 40.
Gains of the FMLN in the negotiation; 346, 2-92, p. 42.
So, is it all over?; 347, 3-92, p. 44.
Peace process in El Salvador: The rope tightens; 350, 6-92, p. 27.
The guerrilla's new road; 351, 7-92, p. 34.
We don't need pamphleteering; 351, 7-92, p. 28. Changes in Radio Venceremos.
War victims abound; 354, 10-92, p. 34.
ICJ rules on the Honduras-El Salvador border conflict: Is everybody happy?; 354, 10-92, p. 37.

Guatemala

Slow progress towards peace; 347, 3-92, p. 42.
Rising violence in Guatemala: Following Fujimori's footsteps; 350, 6-92, p. 30.
Interview with Gaspar Ilóm of the URNG: A just and democratic process; 351, 7-92, p. 37.
URNG's global proposal; 351, 7-92, p. 30.
Unburying the truth; 353, 9-92, p. 27.

Guyana

Inter-racial unity imposes change; 355, 11/12-92, p. 37.

Haiti

Interview with Jean Bertrand Aristide: Prophet of an ethical revolution; 345, 1-92, p. 43.
Washington hides the truth; 346, 2-92, p. 36. On the coup.
Press censorship continues; 350, 6-92, p. 28.

Honduras

Eyes on the European banana market; 348, 4-92, p. 31.
Charges dropped against Honduras; 350, 6-92, p. 6. Nicaragua drops its suit in the Hague.
Protests against foreign mining firms; 353, 9-92, p. 26.
ICJ rules on the Honduras-El Salvador border conflict: Is everybody happy?; 354, 10-92, p. 37.

Mexico

Campaign to save the last forest; 348, 4-92, p. 29

Panama

Land distribution sparks conflict with indigenous groups; 352, 8-92, p. 30.
Colón edges close to chaos; 353, 9-92, p. 26.
Torrijos' party holds congress; 355, 11/12-92, p. 37.

Peru

Suspicious US officials; 349, 5-92, p. 39.
Shining Path put to the test; 354, 10-92, p. 33.

Surinam

Peace agreement signed; 354, 10-92, p. 35.

Uruguay

No to a nuclear reactor; 345, 1-92, p. 38.

Interviews

Luis Carrión: "We back stability"; 345, 1-92, p. 9.
Jean Bertrand Aristide: Prophet of an ethical revolution; 345, 1-92, p. 43.
Daniel Ortega: 'There's no co-government'; 346, 2-92, p. 22.
Comandante Rogelio Martínez, of the FMLN: The war is over, but the struggle continues; 346, 2-92, p. 40.
Henry Ruiz: 'Politics means doing the feasible'; 347, 3-92, p. 17.
Ruth Herrera: Diverse, yes... but united?; 347, 3-92, p. 27.
Bayardo Arce: 'We can't exclude ourselves'; 349, 5-92, p. 14. On the FSLN and the Socialist International.
Daniel Ortega: Sao Paulo Forum: Looking for an alternative; 349, 5-92, p. 32.
Gaspar Ilóm of the URNG: A just and democratic process; 351, 7-92, p. 37.
Ruth Herrera: The Nicaraguan state: Serving neo-liberalism; 354, 10-92, p. 29.
Rigoberta Menchú: The conviction of hope; 355, 11/12-92, p. 31.

Labor movement

Strikes, and strikes again; 345, 1-92, p. 22. Review of 1991.
Labor struggles: A case of terrorism?; 347, 3-92, p. 4.
Ticking towards a social explosion: Not facing the facts; 348, 4-92, p. 4.
For a united front; 348, 4-92, p. 7.
Wave of protests begins; 348, 4-92, p. 8.
Labor and women's struggle; 349, 5-92, p. 6.
Sugarcane workers end strike; 349, 5-92, p. 8.
Talks with bank workers; 349, 5-92, p. 8.
Contaminated workers sue; 350, 6-92, p. 6.
Dock workers' victory; 350, 6-92, p. 6.
It's everybody's or nobody's; 351, 7-92, p. 6.
Central American unions: Towards a common strategy; 351, 7-92, p. 16.
Union offensive against returns; 353, 9-92, p. 6.
An offensive proposal; 353, 9-92, p. 6. Privatization proposal presented by minister of the presidency.
Teachers sign labor agreement; 354, 10-92, p. 7.
Successful strike by telecommunications and postal service workers: Making themselves heard; 355, 11/12-92, p. 7.
Conflict over Enabus; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.
Lottery workers out of luck; 355, 11/12-92, p. 34.

Opinion

Was there no other way?; 346, 2-92, p. 2. On the medal awarded to US military attaché.
To continue the debate within the FSLN; 347, 3-92, p. 2.
Jobs, not signs; 349, 5-92, p. 2.
Who benefits from Si-a-paz?; 350, 6-92, p. 2.
Beneath the surface; 351, 7-92, p. 2. About sandinism.
How did it all turn out?; 352, 8-92, p. 2. On the July 19 celebrations.
Developing solidarity; 353, 9-92, p. 2.
Mocking and jeering in the National Assembly; 354, 10-92, p. 2.
What a way to celebrate; 355, 11/12-92, p. 2.

Politics

When those on top fight, those on the bottom suffer; 345, 1-92, p. 4. Legislative-executive conflict in the UNO.
An uphill year; 345, 1-92, p. 15. Review of 1991.
Eruption on top of an emergency; 349, 5-92, p. 4.

Armed forces

'New look' police; 347, 3-92, p. 41.
Laws limit police actions; 350, 6-92, p. 6.
New fires for Gen. Ortega; 350, 6-92, p. 6.
A new military law?; 350, 6-92, p. 7.
The army confronts "revueltos"; 350, 6-92, p. 7.
Army keeps illegal ecotourism in check; 351, 7-92, p. 7.
Army reduction demanded; 352, 8-92, p. 7.
The last army reduction; 352, 8-92, p. 7.
Army on the offensive; 354, 10-92, p. 6.
The government: repressive and proud of it; 354, 10-92, p. 6.
Blood is shed; 354, 10-92, p. 26. Police use force against student march in September 14 celebrations.
Controversial EPS declaration: Shooting himself in the foot; 355, 11/12-92, p. 4.

Former contra

War-wounded Sandinistas and former contras: Seeking a common future; 346, 2-92, p. 21.
Doctoring "Tigrillo"; 346, 2-92, p. 31.
The government better listen; 349, 5-92, p. 25. César Antonio Chavarría ("comandante Dumas", former contra leader).
Not a desktop reconciliation; 349, 5-92, p. 25. Luis Fley González ("comandante Johnson", former contra leader).
Former contra leader dies; 350, 6-92, p. 7.
Investigation of deaths; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

FSLN

Controversy in the FSLN: More than just a medal; 346, 2-92, p. 4.
War-wounded Sandinistas and former contras: Seeking a common future; 346, 2-92, p. 21.
Interview with Daniel Ortega: 'There's no co-government'; 346, 2-92, p. 22.
To continue the debate within the FSLN; 347, 3-92, p. 2.
FSLN in the Socialist International; 347, 3-92, p. 14.
Interview with Henry Ruiz: 'Politics means doing the feasible'; 347, 3-92, p. 17.
Sandinism's disjuntive; 347, 3-92, p. 33.
Two years after the elections: Still lost in the storm; 347, 3-92, p. 34. By Aldo Díaz Lacayo.
Meeting with the government: FSLN favors anti-crisis measures; 348, 4-92, p. 6.
Elections, forums, discussions...: Debate gets livelier; 348, 4-92, p. 12.
Unbridled discussion; 348, 4-92, p. 15. Debate in the FSLN.
The FSLN's initiative; 349, 5-92, p. 3.
FSLN backs struggle for autonomy; 349, 5-92, p. 7.
Constructive opposition; 349, 5-92, p. 9.
Goverment proposal to the FSLN 349, 5-92, p. 10. Document presented to the FSLN by the government in mid-March.
Resolution on the economic situation; 349, 5-92, p. 11. Resolutions of the Sandinista Assembly..
FSLN supports government efforts to obtain aid: Not a blank check; 349, 5-92, p. 12.
Sandinista Assembly approves FSLN entry into the Socialist International: Political, not ideological reasons; 349, 5-92, p. 13.

Bayardo Arce on the FSLN and the SI: 'We can't exclude ourselves'; 349, 5-92, p. 14. The FSLN and the Socialist International.

FSLN elections: Strengthing unity; 349, 5-92, p. 17.

Sao Paulo Forum: Looking for an alternative; 349, 5-92, p. 32. Interview with Daniel Ortega.

Keeping watch at Carlos Fonseca's tomb; 351, 7-92, p. 20.

Arms against Sandinism; 351, 7-92, p. 21. Arms cache found.

Sandinista Assembly issues declaration; 352, 8-92, p. 5.

FSLN excluded from Central Bank board; 352, 8-92, p. 6.

Comandante Luis Carrión off to Harvard; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

FSLN denounces killing of campesinos; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

13 July 19ths: One more year; 352, 8-92, p. 9.

Sao Paulo Forum meets in Managua: Looking for alternatives; 352, 8-92, p. 13.

Voices of the left; 352, 8-92, p. 13. Interviews with participants in the Sao Paulo

The FSLN on the thirteenth anniversary of the revolution: Towards a national program; 352, 8-92, p. 20.

Religious solidarity; 352, 8-92, p. 28.

More damage to monuments; 353, 9-92, p. 7.

Ethics commission speaks; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

National directorate opposes extraordinary congress session; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

FSLN accepted as SI "observer"; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

FSLN talks with the UDC; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

FSLN leaders: In search of a discourse; 355, 11/12-92, p. 10.

Government/UNO

Corrupt "honesty"; 345, 1-92, p. 24. Review of 1991.

Ticking towards a social explosion: Not facing the facts; 348, 4-92, p. 4.

Alemán re-routes donations; 348, 4-92, p. 7.

Alone and divided; 348, 4-92, p. 22. UNO celebration on Feb. 25, 1992.

Interior minister out; 349, 5-92, p. 5.

Just for the weekend; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

Donors promise US$1.2 billion; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Goverment proposal to the FSLN; 349, 5-92, p. 10. Document presented to the FSLN by the government in mid-March.

New confrontation between César and the executive power: Is the crisis becoming worse?; 350, 6-92, p. 4.

Charges dropped against Honduras; 350, 6-92, p. 6. Nicaragua drops its suit in the Hague.

Chamorro visits the Caribbean coast: Presidential tour; 350, 6-92, p. 10.

Nicaraguan government pressures Libyans: Biting the hand that feeds you; 350, 6-92, p. 24.

United States withholds aid: What new order?; 351, 7-92, p. 4.

Government on trial; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

Nicaragua sells debt; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

Alfredo César, president of the National Assembly: Nicaragua's Dorian Grey; 351, 7-92, p. 10.

A Summit plummets; 351, 7-92, p. 13. 12th summit of Central American presidents, 6-92.

Government faces popular protests and US pressures: Between a rock and a hard place; 352, 8-92, p. 4.

Changes demanded in the army; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

Government accused of bribing deputies: Scandal for the center; 352, 8-92, p. 10.

United States pressures minister; 352, 8-92, p. 29. Rumors about replacement of health minister.

Crossing the line between aid and blackmail: Financing as interference; 353, 9-92, p. 4.

In exchange for what?; 353, 9-92, p. 6. Chamorro's statements about withholding of US aid.

Government against government; 353, 9-92, p. 6.

Nicaragua signs trade agreement; 353, 9-92, p. 6.

Corrupt group to stand trial; 353, 9-92, p. 7.

Ald that isn't; 353, 9-92, p. 10.

Relations with Cuba in critical state; 353, 9-92, p. 24.

Mocking and jeering in the National Assembly; 354, 10-92, p. 2.

Government cedes to US pressures: What changes are in store?; 354, 10-92, p. 4.

The government: repressive and proud of it; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

More reductions in the state; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

Government laments unpaid bills; 354, 10-92, p. 7.

Arms for sale; 354, 10-92, p. 27. Helicopters sold to Peru.

Central Bank minister resigns; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

National Assembly/Laws

A new property law?; 348, 4-92, p. 7.

Prison for debtors; 348, 4-92, p. 23.

Labor code discussion suspended; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

Laws limit police actions; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

New fires for Gen. Ortega; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

A new military law?; 350, 6-92, p. 7.

The state: another rapist?; 351, 7-92, p. 20.

New law for the Central Bank; 352, 8-92, p. 6.

Possible recessive labor code; 353, 9-92, p. 6.

National Assembly backs university demands: The lesson of the students; 353, 9-92, p. 9.

César determined to continue working illegally; 354, 10-92, p. 7.

The National Assembly under the leadership of Alfredo César: The origins of illegality; 354, 10-92, p. 10.

Deputies' pay on hold; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

Rearmed groups

Not a farewell to arms; 345, 1-92, p. 26. Review of 1991.

Report from the northern mountains: Re-disarming; 346, 2-92, p. 7.

Negotiate with consistency; 347, 3-92, p. 3. On the dialogues with recontras and recompas.

US$10 millon "invested towards peace": An arms deal; 347, 3-92, p. 6.

Many still armed; 348, 4-92, p. 7.

Women in armed protest; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

New attempt at disarmament; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Crisis intensifies; 349, 5-92, p. 27.

The army confronts "revueltos"; 350, 6-92, p. 7.

Has "El Indomable" returned?; 351, 7-92, p. 7.

"Recontra" leader dies?; 352, 8-92, p. 6.

Army on the offensive; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

■ Property/Privatization

A different kind of war; 345, 1-92, p. 16. Review of 1991.

Privatizing the rainbow; 346, 2-92, p. 31. Changes in Aeronica.

OOT: Slow and unsure; 347, 3-92, p. 40.

A new property law?; 348, 4-92, p. 7.

US advocacy for somocistas; 348, 4-92, p. 7.

Wholesale eviction; 348, 4-92, p. 9.

On behalf of the miners; 349, 5-92, p. 7.

Mass evictions; 349, 5-92, p. 8.

Somoza claims property; 349, 5-92, p. 8.

Workers' property in Nicaragua: New dilemmas every day; 349, 5-92, p. 19.

The workers of "El Caracol": Is it worth it?, 349, 5-92, p. 20.

Carlos Castro — Victoria brewery: For us and for all; 349, 5-92, p. 22.

Privatization of state banks?: Yes, but no; 350, 6-92, p. 9.

It's everybody's or nobody's; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

El Caracol workers win battle; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

Somocista complaint pending; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

Attorney General's Office on Property; 351, 7-92, p. 6.

House "recovered" from usurpers; 351, 7-92, p. 7.

Banana workers win co-ownership; 352, 8-92, p. 6.

Invaders and invaded fight for recognition: Rural land conflicts; 352, 8-92, p. 23.

CST presents privatization proposal; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

Rights and property in Nicaragua: The heat of the land struggle; 354, 10-92, p. 22.

Subtiava Indians: We're the real owners; 354, 10-92, p. 25.

Compensation paid with public goods; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

Government and the CST negotiate privatization; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

Conflict over Enabus; 355, 11/12-92, p. 8.

New confiscations?; 355, 11/12-92, p. 34.

■ Religion

Catholic hierarchy feels threatened; 350, 6-92, p. 7.

Pope's visit has conditions; 350, 6-92, p. 7.

Church supports sexual repression; 351, 7-92, p. 7.

Religious solidarity; 352, 8-92, p. 28.

Cardinal asks for respect of the poor; 353, 9-92, p. 7.

Harrassment in the name of God.; 353, 9-92, p. 7.

Church denies agreements with the CIA; 353, 9-92, p. 7.

Letter from shepherds... or from wolves?; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

■ Social themes

An hour, less or more?; 346, 2-92, p. 30. Official time change.

Surrounded by theives; 346, 2-92, p. 30.

Rapes cause alarm; 348, 4-92, p. 9.

Endangered students; 348, 4-92, p. 22.

Eruption on top of an emergency; 349, 5-92, p. 4.

Fighting malnutrition creatively; 349, 5-92, p. 29.

Childhood lost; 352, 8-92, p. 26.

Violence against minors on the rise; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

War victims

War-wounded Sandinistas and former contras: Seeking a common future; 346, 2-92, p. 21.

Left out in the street; 347, 3-92, p. 40. Situation of war-wounded worsens.

New promises for war victims; 350, 6-92, p. 7.

Agreement with disabled war veterans; 354, 10-92, p. 7.

■ Solidarity

Heroes and Martyrs International Solidarity Conference: Plan of action; 345, 1-92, p. 29.

A small piece of Nicaragua in the US; 346, 2-92, p. 28.

Tecnica brigade a success: Why Nicaragua? Why now?; 346, 2-92, p. 29.

Waslala: Is there room for cooperation?; 347, 3-92, p. 9.

A poor Cuba still offers help; 350, 6-92, p. 25.

Developing solidarity; 353, 9-92, p. 2.

The new tides of the solidarity movement; 353, 9-92, p. 15.

Canadian Light Brigade: Mutual benefits; 353, 9-92, p. 16.

Cooperation among women; 353, 9-92, p. 18.

Solidarity is also hope; 353, 9-92, p. 21.

■ Women

Nicaraguan women's conference: Seeking unity in diversity; 347, 3-92, p. 22.

Benigna Mendiola: We have more serious problems; 347, 3-92, p. 25.

Interview with Ruth Herrera: Diverse, yes... but united?; 347, 3-92, p. 27.

What other women think; 347, 3-92, p. 30.

Rapes cause alarm; 348, 4-92, p. 9.

Labor and women's struggle; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

Women in armed protest; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

First Central American Feminist Conference; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

V Amnlae Assembly; 349, 5-92, p. 6.

Women of San Juan: Working on a shoestring; 350, 6-92, p. 20.

Congratulations Mom?; 350, 6-92, p. 23.

The state: another rapist?; 351, 7-92, p. 20.

Women of clay and fire; 354, 10-92, p. 16.

Maternal House in Nueva Guinea; 354, 10-92, p. 18.

The pain that unites us; 354, 10-92, p. 19. Mothers of heroes and martyrs in Chontales and Boaco work with mothers of former contras killed in the war.

Amnlae celebrates another anniversary; 355, 11/12-92, p. 9.

■ Other

An open letter on behalf of Barricada Internacional; 345, 1-92, p. 2.

Scratch... and win?; 345, 1-92, p. 34.

Homage to father César Jerez: A man of God and humans; 345, 1-92, p. 46.

Fight brewing; 347, 3-92, p. 41. The beer wars.

The wolf has arrived; 348, 4-92, p. 2. To our readers.

Radio station sabotaged?; 349, 5-92, p. 8.

Cerro Negro volcano erupts: The wrath of the land; 349, 5-92, p. 26.

"Jesus" in Managua's markets; 349, 5-92, p. 32.

Wanted: someone famous to die; 349, 5-92, p. 33. New cemetery in Managua.

Like the Pied Piper of Hamlin; 350, 6-92, p. 22. Anniversary of Benjamin Linder's death.

Dangerous business; 350, 6-92, p. 22. Arsenal discovered in Río San Juan.

Cubana suspends flights; 351, 7-92, p. 7.

Nicaraguan homosexual community persecuted: Human rights endangered; 351, 7-92, p. 12.

Suspicious appearances; 351, 7-92, p. 21. Mayor Alemán's 'municipal inspectors.'

Illnesses afflict campesino communities; 352, 8-92, p. 7.

Inmates ineligible; 352, 8-92, p. 29.

Former soldiers win new battle; 353, 9-92, p. 7.

Illegal "police" corps; 353, 9-92, p. 24. Aleman's 'municipal inspectors.

Central American Court of Justice; 354, 10-92, p. 6.

Nicaragua trembles; 354, 10-92, p. 7.

High demand for trips to Cuba; 354, 10-92, p. 7.

Fury in the waters; 354, 10-92, p. 8. The tsunami.

European Parliament increases aid; 350, 6-92, p. 6.

1992 index; 355, 11/12-92, p. 45.